The countdown is on! I leave on Friday for Pedro Bay, Alaska. There will be 5 of us from Pennsylvania, and 4 joining from Homer, Alaska. Please be praying for our safety, for the work we will do, the people we will impact, and the church in Pedro Bay. There are about 15-18 people attending church there, and they need a pastor.

We have heard that the grizzlies are very active this year, pray for our safety! If you'd like to receive updates throughout the week, let me know!

Last month, I had an amazing time serving in Kensington, Philadelphia. I wrote the following update on my Facebook page but wanted to share it here for those that don't follow me on there. I will be going again on August 22, God willing. Please cover this ministry in prayer! Pray for two Ashleys, Charlene and all the women we will serve. If you want to get involved, let's talk!

"What a great morning in Kensington!

This is the 2nd time I went to serve with a small group of people who serve the "Brides of Christ" breakfast and spend one on one time with each woman.

The first time, I was so shocked by what I saw and so nervous, I didn't know what to say to these women. So I partnered up with another woman who had gone to serve before.

This time, no one was available to go along and partner with me, but I was determined that God wanted me to go. I prayed that He would have to show up because I couldn't do it on my own. The group started out partnering anyway! And then, I was asked to take a woman on my own because there was no one available.

I hesitated because I felt I wasn't ready. I was encouraged by another leader by just a nod of his head, and I reminded myself that the Holy Spirit lives in me and I had no reason to fear! I agreed to take Ashley and we had a great conversation. I'm so blessed to have met her and served her today, as well as a second lady.

Thank you God for giving me confidence in You and boldness and no fear! Holy Spirit gave me all the words to say. Besides, it doesn't matter what words I say or don't say, Holy Spirit does the work. And Ashley left there feeling listened to and loved on!

Such a privilege to serve and love these daughters of God!
